

Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy
Tsinghua University

COP17/CMP7 United Nations, Durban South Africa
28 Nov. to 9 Dec., 2011

Side Event

Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy, Tsinghua University/
Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES)

Low Carbon Development in the Asian Countries

Thursday, 1 December 2011, 20:15-21:45
Venue: Blyde River

The side event will show Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy and Institute for Global Environmental Strategies recent research findings on the low carbon development in China and Japan, tracking domestic activities, policies and performance towards national low carbon development goals, discuss country experiences in low carbon development.

Agenda

Moderator: Hironori Hamanaka, Chair of the Board of Directors, IGES

Zhang Xiliang, Director of Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy, Tsinghua University

20:15 – 20:20 Opening

20:20 – 20:35 Transform the Pattern of Economic Growth, Achieve Green and Low Carbon Development

Liu Bin, Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy, Tsinghua University

20:35 – 20:50 Japanese Climate Policies after Fukushima

Jusen Asuka, Director, Climate Change Group, IGES

20:50 – 21:10 Prospects for China-Japan Cooperation on Development of Chinese Carbon Market

Teng Fei, Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy, Tsinghua University

Yasushi Ninomiya, Director, Market Mechanism Group, IGES

21:10 – 21:30 Commentators

Su Wei, Director General of Climate Change Department, National Development and Reform Commission, China

Sun Chengyong, Deputy Director General, Department of Social Development, Ministry of Science and Technology, China

Shuzo Nishioka, Senior Research Advisor, IGES/ Secretary General, LCS-RNET

21:30 – 21:45 Q&A

Institute of Energy, Environment and Economy and IGES would like to acknowledge that this event is a part of its research activity in the fiscal year 2011 which is sponsored by National Development and Reform Commission, China, Ministry of Science and Technology, China, and Ministry of the Environment, Japan.