

UNIVERSITY OF ZURICH

The Centre for Comparative and International Studies (CIS) is a political science research institute founded in 1997 in Zürich. It is a joint initiative between the institute of political science of the University of Zurich and the political science chairs of the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology.

The CIS stands for innovation and excellence in research and teaching in the fields of International Relations and Comparative Politics.

Fullscreen

Recommended For You

University of Zurich - Key Research Projects.pdf

University of Zurich - Key Topics and Key Researchers

VISIT & FOLLOW US

Visit the University of Zurich

Find out what the University of Zurich is doing to tackle climate change.

Follow the University of Zurich

Follow or connect with University of Zurich and see what they're doing work towards a more sustainable future.

Chat

Visit Us >

FURTHER READING

Climate Policy Research

Learn more about our research on climate policy and development.

Read More >

Key Research Projects

Access key publications from the Centre for International Studies (CIS).

Read More >

Code of Conduct

COVID 19 Code of Conduct

Terms of use

Follow UK COP26:

Follow UN Climate Change:

All UNFCCC Social Channels

United Nations
Climate Change

Copyright © 2021 United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change All Rights Reserved.

Page loaded

Chat