

Support to Kyoto Protocol Implementation (SKPI) Project is funded by the EU

COP 17 / CMP 7
Durban, South Africa
28 November - 9 December 2011

SIDE EVENT

CURRENT PROGRESS AND OUTLOOK FOR CLIMATE CHANGE MITIGATION AND ADAPTATION IN EASTERN EUROPE AND CENTRAL ASIA

Date and time: November 30, 2011 at 20:15

Location: Durban Exhibition Centre (DEC), room Hex River

AGENDA

Moderator: Kanat BAIGARIN – NFP, Nazarbayev University

- SKPI assistance in developing regional and national climate impacts and vulnerability assessments in the Eastern Europe and Central Asia region
- A. SANKOVSKI, SKPI Team Leader (ICF International)
- «TIMES- Kazakhstan»: energy systems modeling for climate change mitigation
- Y. SARBASSOV, Researcher of the Center for Energy Research at Nazarbayev University (Republic of Kazakhstan)

- Patterns of climate change mitigation in the region: role of changes in economic structure vs. technological improvements
- A. GREBENKOV, SKPI key expert (Republic of Belarus)
- Ukrainian climate mitigation policy: current state and perspectives
- A. KHABATYUK, State Invironmental Investment Agency (Ukraine)
- Overview of JI activity in the Russian Federation with special focus on LULUCF JI projects
- D. ZAMOLODCHIKOV, Centre on the Problems of Ecology and Productivity of Forests (Russian Federation)
- National climate policy of the Republic of Belarus
- N. MANUSHENKO, Centre of Hydrometeorology (Republic of Belarus)
- JI project mechanisms in Ukraine
- M. CHIZHENKO, State Invironmental Investment Agency (Ukraine)
- Status of the UNFCCC/the KP and SKPI Activities implementation in Moldova
- V. SCORPAN, SKPI expert (Republic of Moldova)

Questions & Answers

