

Paris Agreement & country readiness – new research on ways forward

UNFCCC side event

Wednesday, 9 November 2016, 15:00 – 16:30

Room Mediterranean (300)

Live broadcast on UNFCCC Climate Change Studio channel:

<https://goo.gl/R8xNRW>

15.00-15.10	Welcome by Meelis Münt , Deputy Secretary General of the Ministry of the Environment, Republic of Estonia
15.10-15.20	Estonia's collaboration with the small islands states in the South Pacific (Meelis Münt , Ministry of the Environment, Estonia)
15.20-15.30	Reducing carbon emissions and improving Climate Resilience in Transport-dependant Pacific Islands (Annela Anger-Kraavi , University of Cambridge & Member of Climate Strategies)
15.30 – 15.40	Discussion including stakeholders
15.40 – 15.50	Countries' readiness to implement the Paris Agreement (Henry Derwent , Climate Strategies)
15.50 – 16.00	Discussion including stakeholders
16.00 – 16.10	Can experience with peace and reconciliation processes help address historical responsibility within international climate negotiations? (Sonja Klinsky , Arizona State University & Member of Climate Strategies)
16.10 – 16.20	Discussion including stakeholders
16.20 – 16.30	Final reflections

Event moderated by Andrzej Błachowicz, Climate Strategies