ISES, a nonprofit, UN-accredited membership NGO founded in 1954, has a long history of being the trusted global advisor on renewable energy.

ISES informs and connects its extensive, diverse membership of businesses, institutions, and individual researchers, academics, professionals, practitioners, decision makers and advocates in more than 100 countries.

A membership with ISES gives you access to critical information on marketing, networking opportunities, news, publications, and training programs.

ISES works to achieve 100% renewable energy for all, used efficiently and wisely, by providing the global renewable energy community with a collective, scientifically credible voice and up-to-date information gathered and synthesized by its talented members.

ISES promotes solar research and development, provides authoritative advice on renewable energy issues worldwide, advocates for a sustainable global solar industry, supports career growth of Young ISES members, and promotes energy education at all levels.
