

World Council of Churches Side Event

Ethical and Religious Insights on the Climate Crisis

Climate change, adaptation and mitigation have been at the core of religious communities and faith based organizations concerns and actions. Religious communities will share ethical and spiritual dimensions of the climate crisis echoing the suffering of people because of threats to their livelihoods

Join us for the Side Event at the Qatar National Convention Centre on Friday, 7 December 2012, 11:30-13:00

Side Event Room 7

Moderator:

Rev. William Somplatsky-Jarman
Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)

Speakers:

Prof. Ibrahim Saleh Al-Naimi (to be confirmed)
Doha International Center for Interfaith Dialogue

Sister Jayanti Kirpalani
Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University - Europe

Father John T. Brinkman
Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers

Archbishop Seraphim Kykotis of Zimbabwe and Angola
Greek Orthodox Patriarchate of Alexandria and All Africa

