

Transition to climate-friendly agriculture

The current finance regime versus viable alternatives

03 DEC 2010 16:45-18:15
MAMEY, CANCÚN MESSE, HALL C
CANCÚN, MEXICO

Transforming agriculture for mitigation and adaptation while strengthening food rights and rural livelihoods requires reliable public funding. Speakers discuss current climate financing and alternatives, agro-ecological approaches and viable, bottom-up practices.

Speakers include:

- Jim Harkness, Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy
- Dr. Hans Herren, World Food Prize Laureate, co-chair IAASTD
- Andre Leu, Intl. Federation of Organic Agriculture Movements
- Esther Penunia, Asian Farmers' Association
- Steve Suppan, Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy

INSTITUTE FOR AGRICULTURE AND TRADE POLICY

IATP.ORG | MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA | WASHINGTON, D.C. | GENEVA, SWITZERLAND