

On the Occasion of the 17th Conference of the Parties (COP17) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC)

Caritas Internationalis, Religions for Peace and World Council of Churches invite you to:

CLIMATE JUSTICE AND FOOD SECURITY: MORAL ETHICAL AND SPIRITUAL IMPERATIVES*

Wednesday, December 7, 2011, 16:45 to 18:15
Room Levubu River – Durban Exhibition Centre

Moderator:

Cardinal Wilfrid Napier – Chair, KwaZulu-Natal Inter-religious Council

Speakers:

Reverend Mardi Tindal – Moderator, United Church of Canada

Rabbi Hillel Avidan – Rabbi, Temple David of Durban

Sister Jayanti Kirpalani - European Director, Brahma Kumaris World Spiritual University

Reverend Nicta Lubaale – General Secretary, Organization of African Instituted Churches

Mrs. Bedria Mohammed Ahmed – Co-chair, Women of Faith Network, Ethiopian Interfaith Development Dialogue and Action (EIFDDA)

Presb. Patricio E. Sarlat Flores – Executive Secretary, Episcopal Commission of Caritas México

Dr. Ela Gandhi – Honorary President, Religions for Peace

* Religious leaders will hold a dialogue on the ethical and spiritual dimensions of climate change and food security, share best practices on advocacy, awareness raising and social/community mobilization and launch a resource guide. Recommendations will also be made to the climate change negotiations

Religions for Peace

