

Role of fiscal instruments in environmental policy-making

5 December, Side Event Room 4, 6.30 – 8.00 pm

Leading experts will discuss the many different economic instruments that can be used for environmental policy-making, including fiscal and market-based mechanisms, which aim to promote the production and use of environmentally sound products and processes within a market framework.

Moderator:

- Kersten-Karl Barth, Director Sustainability Siemens / Chair ICC Commission on Environment and Energy

Panelists:

- Anna Theeuwes, Tax Policy Expert, Shell
- Prashant Modi, President & Chief Operating officer, Great Eastern Energy Corporation
- Luis Miguel Galindo, Chief of the Climate Change Unit, ECLAC
- Tom Heller, Executive Director, Climate Policy Initiative (CPI) / Barbara Buchner, Head of CPI Europe
- Antonio Pflüger (Germany), Vice Chair, UNFCCC Technology Executive Committee (TEC)
- Venkatachalam Iyer, Deputy Managing Director & Chief Credit & Risk Officer, State Bank of India (tbc)