

Article 6.4 SB side event at COP27

Transparency and Expectations from our Stakeholders

Wednesday, 9 November 2022, 18:30—20:00
Side Event Room — Thebes

Background: This side event, organized by the Supervisory Body for the Article 6.4 mechanism, aims to take stock of stakeholder views regarding the work of the Supervisory Body. To that end, this event is designed to collect views, suggestions and input on selected topics from on-site and online participants alike, through virtual interactive means. For each topic, a panel composed by different types of stakeholders, including members of the Supervisory Body, will provide comments and suggestions based on the input provided by participants. The outcome of the event will serve to inform the Supervisory Body as it continues its work.

The event is moderated by Pedro Martins Barata, Senior Climate Director, Environmental Defense Fund

The Panel will include:

- Mr. Piotr Dombrowicki SB vice chair
- Ms. Olga Gassan-Zade, SB member
- Mr. Owen Hewlett, CTO, The Gold Standard Foundation
- Mr. Dirk Forrister, President International Emission Trading Association
- Mr. Jonathan Crook, Expert on global carbon markets, Carbon Market Watch

Three topics will be addressed by the panelists:

1. How can the Article 6.4 mechanism help host countries enhance ambition, including through capacity building to enable early movers/activities?
2. How can the Article 6.4 mechanism inform approaches to ambition and environmental integrity in other crediting mechanisms, and also benefit from emerging best practices in those markets?
3. How should the Supervisory Body implement the requirements for sustainable development environmental and social safeguards, and governance that are

Indicative times

- 0–5 min: Welcome and introduction of the session/topics (Moderator – Mr. Piotr Dombrowicki, Vice-Chair of the Supervisory Body)
- 5–65 min: Interactive sessions
- 65–85 Min: Q&A with audience
- 85–90 min: Summary and wrap-up (Mr. Piotr Dombrowicki, Vice-Chair of the Supervisory Body / Ms. Olga Gassan-Zade, SB member)