

NET ZERO SMOKE AND MIRRORS, A STORY OF BETRAYAL

MAKING THE CASE AGAINST CARBON MARKET OFFSETTING

SPEAKERS

Teresa Anderson - Climate Policy Coordinator, ActionAid International

Seema Joshi - Director of Campaigns, Global Witness

Shefali Sharma - Director, Institute for Agriculture and Trade Policy (IATP) Europe

Agnès Callamard - Secretary General,
Amnesty International

Sônia Guajajara - Lead, Articulação dos Povos
Indígenas do Brasil (APIB)

Jennifer Morgan - Executive Director,
Greenpeace International

Moderated by Juan Pablo Osornio, Senior
Portfolio Manager, Global Climate Politics,
Greenpeace International.

The event will comprise a moderated Q&A with the panel speakers, followed by interventions and open Q&A from the floor.

Net Zero climate targets and plans to expand carbon markets under Art. 6 present dangerous loopholes for fossil fuel actors to delay climate action, threatening land, ecosystems and human rights, including of environmental defenders. Instead, action is urgently needed to bring GHGs down to Real Zero.

SIDE EVENT

MONDAY, 8 NOVEMBER

11:30-12:45

STRANGFORD LOUGH