

Caritas Internationalis, ACT Alliance and World Council of Churches invite to their Consolidated Side Event on Faith based organisations advocate for climate justice

Tuesday 7 December 2010 – 11.30 to 13.00 hs

Room Aguila – Cancun Messe

Communities address climate change, poverty and sustainable development, offering ethical contributions to international negotiations through awareness raising, social mobilization and advocacy. Case study on Nicaragua and interfaith theological approaches from christian and muslim perspectives.

Moderator:

Ms. Martina Liebsch - Director of Policy at Caritas Internationalis

Speakers:

Pbro. Salvador Urteaga Gutiérrez -Adviser, Comisión Episcopal para la Pastoral Social - CEPS - Parish Priest of Ciudad Guzmán, México

Mr. Carlos Javier Cardenas Martínez - The Council of Protestant Churches of Nicaragua - CEPAD

Mgr. Abraham Colque Jiménez - Magister in Theology - Instituto Superior Ecueménico Andino de Teología - ISEAT, Bolivia

Mr. M Abdus Sabur - Secretary General - Asian Muslim Action Network - AMAN, Thailand

