

Official United Nations Side Event

The Global Stock Take:

Who needs to do the heavy lifting to keep within 1.5 degrees of warming?

Side Events and Bonn Climate Change Conference (SB 58)

June 5th 2023 in UNFCCC Headquarters Bonn, Germany

Kamin Zimmer for 110 delegates. 15.15-16.30 pm CEST

Spotlighting alternative voices: Intersectional implications: Less or more developed countries? Equitable Just transition approaches for indigenous peoples + leadership.

Engaging stakeholders: the importance of broad stakeholder engagement in the process + delivery of concrete action, implementation, investment, action agenda a key focus for COP 28 building on the rich action agenda at COP 27. Integrated + holistic- gendered, approaches including youth, oceans and seas. Differentiation and equity; Human rights; Indigenous peoples

Partners:

Lead applicant: Green Economics Institute (GEI), by Ms. Miriam Kennet.

Co-applicant: Global Greens (Verts Mondiaux) (Global Greens), by Mr. Frank Sheridan.

Co-applicant: Technology Education Research and Rehabilitation for Environment Policy Centre (TERRE Policy Centre) by Mme Vinitaa Apte

Co-applicant: University of Strathclyde by Ms. Bernadette Snow

Co- applicant: Club UNESCO du centre d'action femme et enfant (CUCAFE), by Mme Georgette Bilonda Mpenda

Co- applicant: Environment-People-Law (EPL), by Ms. Hanna Khomechko.

Speakers:

For Lead Partner The Green Economics Institute: to be confirmed

Miriam Kennet Founder and Director, Alumni Mansfield College, University of Oxford, Founder and Editor The International Journal of Green Economics.

Merem Tahar Association Women of the Diaspora, first young woman representative of the Toubou GA (Chad)

Aissatou Ba-Linnarz (Germany and DRC )

Dr Manasse Bangagnan Doya (UK and Congo) Medical Practitioner

Professor Thomas Duncanson (USA)

For Technology Education Research and Rehabilitation for Environment Policy Centre (TERRE Policy Centre)

Mme Vinitaa Apte Terre Policy (India) on line

For Partner: University of Strathclyde by Ms. Bernadette Snow

Bernadette Snow (South Africa and UK) FAO Oceans University of Strachclyde ) tbc

Mitchell Lennan (University of Aberdeen) The Law of the Sea and young person tbc

For Partner: Club UNESCO du centre d'action femme et enfant (CUCAFE):

Mme Georgette Bilonda Mpenda, (D R Congo and France) tbc

For Partner: Global Greens (Verts Mondiaux) (Global Greens)

Jacquelyn Jepchirchir (Kenya) Social Impact and policy advocate.

For Co- applicant: Environment-People-Law (EPL), by Ms. Hanna Khomechko.

TBC

United Nations Invitation Letters

Please note this is an official United Nations Event and therefore all participants will need an official invitation document from the UN for which we have to apply beforehand. Please therefore register on the link below to apply and we will advise next steps.

Bookings

To book for this side event please register on the link below:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/sb58-united-nations-climate-conference-june-2023-bonn-tickets-558935480067>

info@greeneconomicsinstitute.org.uk

www.greeneconomicsinstitute.org.uk

www.geiclimate.org