

World Health Organization

REGIONAL OFFICE FOR

Europe

Health as a priority in a changing climate

Impacts and responses

WHEN: Wednesday, 15 June, 2011; 13:15-14:45

WHERE: TRAM room (Ministry of Transport, MoT)

Vulnerability assessment priorities and multisectoral national adaptation strategies are the main results of a seven-country pilot in central Asia and the eastern part of the WHO European Region.

Join the discussion on achievements and lessons learnt

This event is kindly supported by

Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety

Programme

Wednesday, 15 June, 2011 - 13:15-14:45 hrs

Introduction

Srđan Matić, WHO Regional Office for the Europe

Opening remarks

Alexander Nies, German Federal Ministry for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety (BMU)

The seven-country initiative

Bettina Menne and Jo Nurse, WHO Regional Office for Europe

Round table: Successes in financing health adaptation

with Ministry of Health representatives from the seven countries and WHO

- Diarmid Campbell-Lendrum, WHO
- Gazmend Bejtja, Albania
- Ainash Sharshenova, Kyrgyzstan
- Kholmakhmad Nazarov, Tajikistan
- Nurkan Sadvakassov, Kazakhstan
- Vladimir Kendrovski, The former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia
- Olga Mirshina, Uzbekistan

Questions and answers

Video on protecting health from climate change

Concluding remarks by chair Alex Kirby