

IGES Side Event

CDM Reform: Proposals Based on Lessons Learned from IGES CDM Capacity Building with a Special Session on Japan's Emissions Trading Scheme

Date: 10 June 2008 (Tuesday)
Time: 13:00 - 15:00
Venue: MOE Wind
Organiser: Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES), Japan

* Refreshments will be served during the event

Agenda

Chair: Mr. Taka Hiraishi, Board of Directors and Senior Consultant, IGES

13:00 - 13:05	Introduction
13:05 - 13:30	Lessons learned and findings from IGES CDM Capacity Building Programme (including Q&A) - Mr. Keisuke Iyadomi, Researcher, CDM Programme, IGES
13:30- 14:00	Proposals and the way forward for CDM reform (including Q&A) - Mr. Yuji Mizuno, Senior Expert/CDM Programme Leader, IGES
14:00 - 14:30	Interim Report on the Advisory Committee on the Emissions Trading Scheme in Japan (including Q&A) - Dr. Yasushi Ninomiya, Ministry of the Environment, Japan
14:30 - 15:00	Discussion with refreshments

IGES has been conducting unique CDM capacity building activities in Asia with support from DNAs in target countries since 2003. IGES also updates the latest CDM information regularly using the "CDM in CHARTS", database, and specific country information, etc. The latest CDM in CHARTS ver. 5.1 will also be available during the event.

For more information on the IGES CDM Programme activities → <http://www.iges.or.jp/en/cdm/index.html>

