

Presidencia de la República Dominicana

Consejo Nacional para el Cambio Climático
y el Mecanismo de Desarrollo Limpio

ACE in the Dominican Republic

Leveraging public participation through the Doha Work Programme on Article
6/Action for Climate Empowerment

Jeniffer Hanna Collado

Presidencia de la República Dominicana
Consejo Nacional para el Cambio Climático
y el Mecanismo de Desarrollo Limpio

Promotion of access to information and public participation related to decision making

National Climate Forum of the Dominican Republic

April 6th, 2016. Organized by the academia, national NGOs and the government with support of USAID.

- National climate situation
- Commitment from all sectors to build climate resilience
- Climate change and resilience Observatory

Presidencia de la República Dominicana

Consejo Nacional para el Cambio Climático
y el Mecanismo de Desarrollo Limpio

Promotion of access to information and public participation related to decision making

Climathon: -Hackathon of Technological Innovation for a Low Carbon and Sustainable Development

Engage the Dominican youth on the issue of climate change through technological innovation projects to:

- Highlight the usefulness of the information contained in the NatComs
- Impact multiple sectors of society about the challenges of climate change
- Enable and empower the Dominican society of the technical inputs information contained in the 3rd NatCom.

Over 80 participants

20 mentors: climate change, technology, graphic design and sustainable development.

12 projects

- renewable energy prototypes
- carbon footprints apps
- public awareness web platforms.

Presidencia de la República Dominicana

Consejo Nacional para el Cambio Climático
y el Mecanismo de Desarrollo Limpio

Leadership in supporting the implementation of Article 6 of the Convention

WINDOW OF OPPORTUNITY!

Social movement in 2011

Allocation of 4% of GDP to the education system
(Education General Law 66-97)

Doha work programme: Access to information and public participation at the domestic level

Promote wider participation of youth through education programs

Foster the spaces of debates and discussions at the community level

Promote the participation of media experts to share experiences and challenges on climate awareness

Enable multi-stakeholders networks for climate action

Thank you!

www.cambioclimatico.gob.do

j.hanna@cambioclimatico.gob.do