

TECHNOLOGY AND FINANCE IN INTERNATIONAL CLIMATE CO-OPERATION

Time: Saturday, 7 June 2008, 10:00-12:00

Venue: MoE, Solar

Background:

The Club of Madrid, the Bellona Foundation and the utility company Hafslund ASA jointly organised "Climate Conference 08: Technology and Finance in Climate Cooperation" in Norway 5-6 June 2008 (www.cc8.no).

Starting out on World Environment Day, this high-level conference gathered 100 selected international representatives from government, academia, the private sector and the environmental movement to draw up a series of ambitious and focused recommendations for technology and finance provisions in a post-2012 global climate change regime.

These recommendations will be presented for discussion during the side event, which will be chaired by the Rt. Hon. Jennifer Mary Shipley, former Prime Minister of New Zealand and Member of the Club of Madrid.

Agenda:
