

Climate Change and Hunger: The Role of Social Protection in Adaptation and Food Security

WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME (WFP) SIDE EVENT

When: Thursday, 3rd of June, 13.00-14.30

Where: “Wind”, Ministry of Environment

An interactive discussion between representatives of governments, international organizations and academic institutions on the role of social protection and safety nets in ensuring food security under climate change, and on social protection in the context of adaptation in the climate change negotiations.

Moderator: Carlo Scaramella

Climate Change and Disaster Risk Reduction Coordinator, WFP

Discussants: Juan Sandoval Mendiolea

Coordinator, Multilateral Affairs and Human Rights Department
Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mexico

Veerle Vandeweerd

Director, Environment and Energy, UNDP

Alex Arnall

Research Officer, IDS

Thomas Yanga

Regional Director for West Africa, WFP

Representative of Burkina Faso/African Union (tbc)

Contact: for general information:

Oscar Ekdahl

World Food Programme

Telephone: +46 709 96 69 00

E-mail: Oscar.Ekdahl@wfp.org

media contact:

Ralf Südhoff

World Food Programme

Telephone: +49 160 949 125 47

E-mail: Ralf.Suedoff@wfp.org

www.wfp.org

World Food Programme

Fighting Hunger Worldwide

wfp.org