

Experiences in implementing MRV system

Marrakesh, 9 November 2016

Katia Simeonova
Manager Transparency Framework Sub-programme
Mitigation Data Analysis programme

UNFCCC secretariat

MRV system: Status

MRV elements	Annex I Parties	Non-Annex I Parties
Reporting	National communications (4 years) National GHG inventory (annually) Biennial reports (2 years)	National communications (contain GHG inventory) (4 years) Biennial update reports (contain GHG inventory) (2 years)
Technical review or analysis	Technical review of biennial reports (2 years) In-depth review of national communications (4 years) Annual review of national GHG inventories (annually)	Technical analysis of biennial update reports (2 years)
Multilateral process and compliance	Multilateral assessment (2 years) Compliance (standing arrangements)	Facilitative sharing of views 2 years)

Color coding
	Convention only
	Kyoto Protocol only
	Both Convention and Kyoto Protocol

MRV system - Lessons learned

Reporting

- Matured reporting of GHG inventories and NC by developed countries
- Beginning of the robust reporting process by developing countries
- Different reporting capacity defines the need for flexibility in reporting

Verification

- Forum to share experience and build collective knowledge
- Platform for capacity building
- Reliance on the professionalism of the experts

Panel I – Experience in reporting

What are the experience and challenges with the existing reporting?

How the existing reporting practice could serve as a basis for the new transparency framework, including flexibility?

Discussion panel:

- Mr. Harry Vreuls, The Netherlands
- Mr. Brian Mantlana, South Africa
- Mr. Giacomo Grassi, EU

What are the experience and challenges with the existing technical review and analysis and multilateral consideration processes?

How the existing verification experience could serve as a basis for the new transparency framework, including flexibility?

Discussion panel:

- Ms. Helen Plume, New Zealand
- Mr. Mahendra Kumar, Fiji
- Mr. Marcelo Rocha, Brazil

