

UNFCCC and UNEP side event at COP 25

Emissions Gap Report 2019

Key findings and ways forward

10 December 2019 | 13.15 - 14.45 | Room 6, Hall 4

Programme

Opening remarks by the Moderator, John Christensen, UNEP DTU Partnership

High-level interventions

Ms. Inger Andersen, Executive Director of the United Nations Environment Programme

Ms. Patricia Espinosa, Executive Secretary of the UN Climate Change Secretariat

HE Carolina Schmidt (TBC), Minister of the Environment, Chile, President of COP 25

HE Claire Perry (TBC), former Minister of State for Energy and Clean Growth the UK, incoming President of COP 26

Presentation of the key findings of the Emissions Gap Report 2019

Anne Olhoff, Head of Climate Planning and Policy at the UNEP DTU Partnership

Interactive panel debate and Q&A with the audience: Opportunities to accelerate mitigation action and to enhance the ambition of the new and updated NDCs in 2020

Lead authors of the Emissions Gap Report 2019

Nebojsa Nakićenović, Emeritus Professor, Vienna University of Technology, Emeritus Research Scholar, International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis, and Executive Director of The World in 2050

Niklas Höhne, founding partner, NewClimate Institute

Joeri Rogelj, Lecturer, Grantham Institute, Imperial College London, and Senior Research Scholar, International Institute for Applied System Analysis

Michel den Elzen, Senior Researcher, Climate Policy Analyst, PBL Netherlands Environmental Assessment Agency

Edgar Hertwich, International chair and Professor, Norwegian University of Science and Technology

John Christensen, Director, UNEP DTU Partnership