

MOEJ's Actions for Putting Co-benefits Forward

Kotaro Kawamata

Deputy Director, Climate Change Division
Ministry of the Environment, Japan

MOEJ's Actions

Demonstrating Tangible Co-benefits from Real Projects in CDM

- ▶ Model PJs in Malaysia and Thailand are in progress financially supported by MOEJ Schemes
- ▶ Other MOEJ Schemes introduced co-benefits as a support criterion

Photos from Semiaerobic Methane Avoidance Project in Malaysia

MOEJ's Actions

Advancing and Expanding Co-benefits Cooperation with its partners

- ▶ Cooperation Agreements concluded with China and Indonesia
- ▶ Cooperation activities in place in China, Indonesia and Vietnam (activities involves application of quantitative calculation methods)

MOEJ's Actions

Adhering its position to support Co-benefits Proposals in Future Framework

- ▶ Japan proposed its support to a co-benefits approach to improved project-based mechanisms in Bonn and Accra.
- ▶ Co-benefits promotes SD functions for developing countries.

