

AFTER PARIS

INEQUALITY, FAIR SHARES, AND THE CLIMATE EMERGENCY

---

A NEW CIVIL SOCIETY SCIENCE- AND EQUITY-BASED ASSESSMENT OF THE NDCS

---

Side event:

Thursday 13 December 2018,
15.00-16.30 Side event room Wisla

Download the report
civilsocietyreview.org/report2018

Speakers:

Alison Doig | Christian Aid

Sivan Kartha | Stockholm Environment Institute

Lidy Nacpil | Asian Peoples Movement on Debt and Development

Mithika Mwenda | Pan-African Climate Justice Alliance

Bert de Wel | International Trade Union Confederation

Brandon Wu | ActionAid

Our previous three equity review reports:

- 2015: "Fair Shares: A Civil Society Equity Review of the INDCs" at civilsocietyreview.org/report
- 2016: "Setting the Path Towards 1.5°C: A Civil Society Equity Review of Pre-2020 Ambition" at civilsocietyreview.org/report2016
- 2017: "Equity and the Ambition Ratchet: Towards a Meaningful 2018 Facilitative Dialogue" at civilsocietyreview.org/report2017

Photo Credit: © Humans of Kiribati / Raimon Kataotao
Sandbag walls used to prevent coastal erosion succumb to king tides in Kiribati.

