

Agriculture in the Climate Talks and the Food Security Imperative: Which Way to Just Solutions?

Wednesday, 28 November 2012
20:15–21:45
Side Event Room 9

This panel highlights pitfalls of “climate-smart” agriculture and evaluates current proposals in the UNFCCC. It proposes alternative approaches to tackle the climate and agriculture crises while ensuring the right to food.

Speakers include:

- Doreen Stabinsky, Senior Advisor, IATP and Professor, Global Environmental Politics, College of the Atlantic
- Anika Schroeder, Policy Officer Climate Change and Development, MISEREOR
- Dr. Haridas Varikottil, Scientific Advisor on Agriculture and farmer, Caritas India
- Harjeet Singh, International Coordinator: Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Adaptation, ActionAid

