

Article 6.4 mechanism: implementation status

Bonn Climate Change Conference

World Conference Centre Bonn, Germany, 10 June 2023, 13.15-14.30

“The Article 6.4 mechanism is a new instrument established through a multilateral mandate by the Parties of the Paris Agreement. As it undergoes development to ensure alignment with the exigencies of the Paris era, the Supervisory Body is actively working to ensure that the mechanism is inclusive and accessible, and that it upholds unparalleled standards of environmental integrity.”

-- James Grabert
Director, Mitigation Division,
UN Climate Change secretariat
