

Asia-Europe Environment Forum

Thursday, 4 December 2008
10.30 am to 12.30 pm

Towards integrated adaptation and mitigation measures in agriculture

Side Event in the EU Pavillion
UNFCCC COP 14
Poznan, Poland

For more information about the ENVforum please contact: env@asef.org or visit our website: www.env.asef.org

With the support of the Slovenian government and the Adam Mickiewicz University

In cooperation with the University of Zurich

Sida

Presentations

Interactions of mitigation and adaptation strategies in the agricultural sector

Yuri Okubo

University of Zurich

Opportunities and obstacles of enhancing synergies

Case studies from Europe

Zbigniew Kundzewicz

Polish Academy of Sciences

Case studies from Asia

Masanori Kobayashi

IGES

Assessing the effectiveness of mitigation and adaptation synergies

John van Aardenne

Institute for Environment and Sustainability, EC Joint Research Centre

Panel Discussion

Successful governance instruments for an integrated approach

Moderator: Axel Michaelowa

Perspectives GmbH

Panelists:

Richard Klein

Swedish Environment Institute

Aree Wattana Tummakird

Office of the Natural Resources and Environmental Policy Planning (ONEP), Thailand

Xu Yinlong

Institute of Environment and Sustainable Development in Agriculture, Chinese Academy of Agricultural Sciences (CAAS)

Suruchi Bhadwal

Centre for Global Environment Research, The Energy Research Institute (TERI)

The side event will be followed by a sandwich lunch

With the support of the Slovenian government and the Adam Mickiewicz University

In cooperation with the University of Zurich

University of Zurich