

SIDE EVENT AGENDA

Twelfth Conference of the Parties to the UNFCCC/Second Meeting of the Parties to the Kyoto Protocol Nairobi, Kenya

EVENT TITLE:	Business Views on Market-Based Approaches Post-2012
THEMES:	This program will analyze and provide business and delegate perspectives on post-2012 policy issues, responding to the set of questions that the co-facilitators of the dialogue on long-term cooperative action has released on market-based approaches to global emission reduction.
DATE/TIME/LOCATION:	Friday, November 10, 15:15 – 16:45, African Blackwood
Opening		James Wolf , Head Delegate, U.S. Business Council for Sustainable Energy
Overview of the Dialogue Workshop - Questions Under Consideration, Next Steps for Dialogue Process		Jan Adams, Ambassador for the Environment to Australia (15 min)
BCSEs Coalition Overview – Experiences and Value with Market-Based Approaches and General Recommendations on CDM, JI and Post-2012		Lisa Jacobson, U.S. Business Council for Sustainable Energy (10 min)
Business Views Post-2012 – Findings of U.K. BCSE Paper - http://bcse.org.uk/ukbcse/policy/climate_negotiations.shtml		Kirsty Hamilton , U.K. Business Council for Sustainable Energy (12 min)
Company Perspective – Value of market-based approaches, what the market needs going forward and what Econergy's different business groups are looking for/need from the UNFCCC process		Francesca Cerchia , Econergy International (12 min)
Comments – What is the value of market-based approaches? How can they be improved? What signals are need from the UNFCCC process and when? What other decisions will impact market post-2012? (US/AU action, Allocation policy under ETS, fuel prices, CDM/JI pipeline, etc. (5 to 7 minutes each)		Richard Wise, AUBCSE Jim Wolf, American Standard/Trane TBD, Winrock International William Greene, Point Carbon

Question & Answer Session

Closing Remarks