

Advancing Climate Action in the NDC: Amplifying Best Practices for Civil Society and Youth Inclusion

- Promoting a Global People's Assembly to ensure that youth and grassroots perspectives and marginalized communities inform global climate policy

The event aims to leverage grassroots participation in UNFCCC by galvanizing action to organize a Global People's Assembly for the next COP30 and GST, broadening frontline communities' involvement.

Speakers

- Moderator of the panel: Joseph Burke, Universal Rights Group.

Opening remarks by:

- Mwanahamisi Singano, WEDO Senior Policy Lead,
- Jarê Aikyry, Environmental Defender from Brazil, -
- Maria Cristina Cifuentes, peace professional in the NDC team, Colombia,
- Johanna Arriagada, leading the integration of ACE and gender into Chile's new NDC Ministry of Environment.
- Introductory speaker: Floridea Di Ciommo, Director at cambiaMO.

Rapid fire session:

- Babitha P.S, grassroots perspective,
- Ina Maria Shikongo, Environmental Defender from Namibia,
- Ana Carolina Siqueira, Care About Climate.
- Closing speaker: Isatis M. Cintron-Rodriguez, ACE Observatory and Columbia University

Thu, 13 June 2024

10:15 – 11:30 CET

Room Bonn

The event will facilitate a dialogue among parties, civil society representatives, and other stakeholders, ensuring representation of key regions and impacted constituencies.

