

Advancing Ambition Through Multilevel and Collaborative Climate Action

UN Bonn Climate Change Conference 2019, SB50 Side Event

Date and time:	Tuesday, 25 June 2019, 16:45-18:15 CEST
Venue:	World Conference Centre, Bonn, Room Bonn
Conceptualisation:	Building upon the joint cooperation between ICLEI—Local Governments for Sustainability (ICLEI) and NDC Partnership for the International Conference on Climate Action (ICCA2019), the panel will bring together leaders and decision-makers from all levels of government to address the urgency of accelerating the implementation of NDCs through multilevel action.

SPEAKERS

- Jisun Hwang, Senior Climate Advocacy and Policy Officer, ICLEI World Secretariat - Moderator
 - Thibaud Voïta, Head of Knowledge Products, NDC Partnership - NDC Partnership on enhancing collaborative climate action
 - Constanze Böning, ICCA Secretariat, Germany – ICCA outcomes and next steps for multilevel, collaborative action
 - Maryke van Staden, Director, Bonn Center for Local Climate Action and Reporting (carbonn Center) at ICLEI & Manager of ICLEI's Low Emission Development Program - ICLEI's approach to vertically integrated climate action
 - Hironori Hamanaka, Chair of ICLEI Japan Office - Urban transformation in Japan and outcomes of G20 Ministers of Environment and Energy in Nagano
 - Lea Ranalder, Project Manager, REN21 - Renewables in Cities Global Status Report
-