

Low Carbon Development Pathways Studies and regional findings on the economics of climate change

19:30–21:00; December 10, 2008

White-Tailed Eagle UNFCCC Pavilion

Poznan, Poland

Food and drink will be served

Latest timetable:

Opening by Nick Stern

- Overall economics of climate change and importance of regional work

ADB – Southeast Asia RECCS findings

- Welcoming by Ursula Schaefer-Preuss (Vice President, ADB)
 - Climate Change Issues and Initiatives in Asia
- Presentation of RECCS, Emil Salim (Lead Economist)
 - Key findings and messages from RRECCS

Highlights from Low Carbon Prosperity work in Mexico

- Presentation by Francisco Barnes (McKinsey, Mexico)

Panel discussion and audience Q & A (30 mins) chaired and introduced by Lord Stern

Speakers will be joined by:

Mr. Raekwon Chung, (Climate Change Ambassador, Rep. of Korea)

Dr. Leena Srivastava (Executive Director, TERI, India)

Sergio Margulis (World Bank, Lead Environmental Economist, (Economics of Adaptation study), outside the Bank - Coordinator of the Economics of Climate Change in Brazil study)