

The role of carbon markets and climate finance for NDC implementation in developing countries

ROOM 5

Friday, 13th December 2019

13:15 - 14:45

The event presents key lessons learned and recommendations from research on how future carbon markets can be designed and blended with climate finance in order to mobilize finance for NDC implementation in developing countries and LDCs.

Ms YOUNG SOOK YOO
Co-President of Climate Change Center
former Minister of Environment Korea
Welcoming remarks

Dr AXEL MICHAELOWA
Climate Net Board Member
Perspectives Climate Group
Moderator – Setting the scene

Mr STEPHAN HOCH
Perspectives Climate Group
Preparing for Article 6 in developing countries – building on the CDM while transforming carbon markets

Mr SUH-YONG CHUNG
Director of CSDLAP
Professor of Korea University
Article 6 as a window for climate finance for developing countries

Ms TIRHAS MEBRAHTU
Director (DNA), Environment, Forests, and
Climate Change Commission, Ethiopia
Ethiopia's carbon market experience and
Article 6 priorities

Ms FENELLA AOUANE
Principal Green Finance Specialist, GGGI Opportunities and challenges of implementing carbon transactions under Article 6