

Side Event

Arctic – A Messenger for Global Change

Sweden, as Chairman of the Arctic Council, presents together with the Arctic Monitoring and Assessment Programme (AMAP) and Greenland, the latest changes and trends observed in the Arctic regarding melting of Snow, Water, Ice and Permafrost and Short-Lived Climate Forcers.

Programme:

Presentations of key results from the Arctic Council Report:
Snow, Water, Ice and Permafrost in the Arctic (SWIPA)

Terry Callaghan, Distinguished Research Professor, Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences and Lars-Otto Reiersen, AMAP Secretariat

Greenland in a changing climate – Meeting the challenge

Jens B. Frederiksen, Minister and Deputy-Premier, Greenland

Addressing Arctic Climate Change:

Actions on Short-Lived Climate Forcers

Svante Bodin, Dr, Ministry of the Environment, Sweden

Vulnerable populations in the Arctic

Birgitta Evengård, professor, Umea University, Sweden

Delivery of Statement from the Arctic States: Canada, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway, Russian Federation, Sweden and United States of America

Anders Flanking, State Secretary, Ministry of the Environment, Sweden

Panel discussion on the global and regional consequences and actions needed moderated by Lars-Otto Reiersen

Tuesday 6 December 13:15—14:45
Apies River Room
Durban Exhibition Centre

ARCTIC COUNCIL
SWEDISH CHAIRMANSHIP
2011-2013

REGERINGSKANSLIET

Government Offices of Sweden