

Generating trust in carbon markets: insights from research

Tuesday, 3 December
11:30 - 13:00 – Room 4

PROF. MICHAEL MEHLING, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

DR. AXEL MICHAELOWA, Perspectives Climate Group/University of Zurich

GILLES DUFRASNE, Carbon Market Watch

RAPHAELA KOTSCH, University of Zurich/Zurich University of Applied Sciences

CHRISTOPH BALS, Germanwatch (Moderation)

COP25 – OFFICIAL UNFCCC SIDE EVENT

The side event will present research on the principles that should guide an international carbon market. Based on experiences with the Kyoto mechanisms and regional ETS, the event explores approaches to generate trust and to guard the integrity of the market mechanism under the Paris Agreement.
