

SIDE EVENT AGENDA DURING COP 22 UNFCCC

"Development Priority: Adaptation and mitigation in particularly vulnerable countries in Latin America"

Approaches in reducing climate vulnerability and articulating adaptation and mitigation actions offer the best opportunities to achieve sustainable development goals.

DATE: Thursday, November 17th, 2016

HORA: From 1:15 pm to 2:45 pm

PLACE: Bering (Area E- Side Events & Exhibits, Blue Zone in COP Venue)

PART 1
TIME	TOPIC AND SPEAKER
13:15-13:30	NDC and the development priorities in the tropical region most sensitive to climate change Ms. Lina Pohl, Minister of Environment and Natural Resources, El Salvador
13:30-13:45	Facing Climate Change: Integrating Adaptation and Mitigation Prof. Maria José Sanz, Scientific Director of BC3
13:45-14:00	Promoting Mitigation. Energy efficiency in Public building's NAMA Mr. Luis Reyes, Director of the National Energy Board of the Government of El Salvador
14:00-14:10	Questions

PART II
TIME	TOPIC AND SPEAKER
14:10-14:18	Coping with climate change in the Central American Dry Corridor Mr. Jorge Quezada, National Focal Point to the UN Convention to Combat Desertification, UNCCD
14:18-14:26	RegionsAdapt: a tool for Latin American subnational governments Mr. Joan França, Project Manager
14:26-14:34	Taiwan's Innovative strategies to cope with climate change. Mr. Chung-Huang Huang, Vice President, Taiwan Research Institute
14:34-14:45	Questions