

Demanding a space Indigenous women's experience with and role in climate actions

Friday, 07 Dec 2018, 18:30—20:00, Bieszczady (Room 1), Area G

Indigenous women have long been marginalized, both as members of indigenous communities and as women, and their role in climate change actions has been neglected. However, indigenous women are increasingly taking the stage and voicing their opinions, ideas and concerns, including in this side-event.

Speakers:

Ms Naw Ei Ei Min, POINT, Myanmar

Ms Daria Egereva, CSIPN, Russia

Ms Delfina Catip, AIDSESEP, Peru

Ms Hsin Su, PIDA, East Asia

Ms Edna Kaptoio, International Alliance of Indigenous and Tribal Peoples of the Tropical Forests (IAITPTF), Kenya

Moderation, Kathrin Wessendorf, IWGIA

(English-Spanish interpretation will be available)

A documentary on “Indigenous Peoples and Seeds” will be screened in the end of the side event
