

European Climate Platform (ECP)¹

An Initiative by MISTRA's Climate Policy Research Programme (CLIPORE) and the Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS)

Wuppertal Institute for Climate, Environment and Energy

Joint Side event at COP 14, Poznan

THE NEW FINANCE ARCHITECTURE FOR POST-2012 Programme

Venue: Grebe
Thursday, 04 December 2008, 19:30-21:00

Welcome by Chair, Monica Alessi, Programme Manager, Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS)

Introduction (5 minutes)

Noriko Fujiwara, Head of Climate Change, Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS), and Wolfgang Sterk, Project Coordinator, Wuppertal Institute

Financing Mitigation and Adaptation: What scale of resources is required, where should the funds come from and how should they be delivered?

Presentation on ECP reports No. 6 and No. 7 (20 minutes)

Noriko Fujiwara, Head of Climate Change, Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS)

Moving Beyond Offsetting (12 minutes)

Wolfgang Sterk, Project Coordinator, Wuppertal Institute

Who Should Finance Climate Protection? A Discussion Based on Legal Principles (12 minutes)

Rie Watanabe, Project Coordinator, Wuppertal Institute

Financing Adaptation to Climate Change: Issues and priorities

Presentation of ECP Report No. 8 (12 minutes)

Åsa Persson, Research Fellow, Stockholm Environment Institute (SEI)

Comments (10 minutes)

Astrid Ladefoged, European Commission, DG Environment

Ana María Kleymeyer, Secretariat of Environment and Sustainable Development, Argentina

Open discussion

¹ For more information about the ECP, please see: http://www.ceps.eu/Article.php?article_id=484