

Carbon for Development

Opportunities in New Regions and Emerging Environmental Markets

When 3. Dec 2012, 8 . 15 – 9 . 45 PM
Where Side Event Room 6 , Qatar National Convention Centre
Hosted by myclimate, The Gold Standard Foundation, Government of Liechtenstein/Carlo Foundation

There are exciting developments in approaches to climate finance. This side event will present the growing emergence of, and support for, high quality projects in emerging geographies, such as the Middle East and outline concrete work that is underway to value co-benefits for new markets.

The Gold Standard Foundation: Leading the market

Adrian Rimmer, CEO of Gold Standard

Increasing the demand of high quality offset projects through integrated rating products and regulatory measures – Examples from CARLO Foundation and the Liechtenstein Government

Sven Braden, Government of Liechtenstein on behalf of CARLO Foundation

Sustainability benefits of worldwide myclimate carbon offset projects

René Estermann, CEO of myclimate

Climate protection engagements of civil society and companies in Arabic countries

Habiba Al Marashi, Chairperson of Emirates Environmental Group, President of Arabia CSR Network

Energy & Water Efficiency in Middle East – Case Studies

Sandrine Le Biavant, Division Manager Consultant Farnek Avireal

Roundtable Discussions and Q & A

Above speakers will discuss on the challenges of quality and quantity of carbon offsets