

Human Rights in Domestic Climate Policies: Where We Stand and How We Should Proceed

COP28 Side Event

Friday December 8, 2023, 18:30-20:00

Venue: B6, Building 78

Event room: 2

Join us for a panel discussion:

Moderated by Lien Vandamme, Senior Campaigner Human Rights and Climate Change, Center for International Environmental Law

Elham Youssefian, Senior Adviser on Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Action, International Disability Alliance

Jayce Chiblow, Education & Training Manager, Indigenous Climate Action

Alba Saray PÉREZ TERÁN, Climate Change Policy Advisor, Oxfam Belgium

Emina Ćerimović, Senior Researcher, Disability Rights Division, Human Rights Watch

RSVP at: <https://forms.gle/1gnNJpLmhZTN6bEa8>

*Captioning and Sign interpretation will be available

This side-event aims to provide a snapshot of the trends, opportunities, challenges, and practices at the intersections of human rights and climate policy-making, with a particular focus on the rights of women, persons with disabilities, and Indigenous Peoples.