SB50 SIDE EVENT

It is crucial for countries to raise their climate ambition over the next two years. But what does that mean? At this side event civil society, researchers and government representatives will discuss the ways in which countries can step-up national ambition.

Expect to hear from CAN, NewClimate Institute, Friends of the Earth, Greenpeace Chile, Costa Rica, Georgia and Norway:

FRIDAY, 21 JUNE
3.00 TO
4.30 PM
ROOM BONN

1. What does ambition mean to different stakeholders and in different countries?
2. National case studies from progressive countries in different areas
3. Expectations for transparent and inclusive national enhancement processes in 2019 and 2020
