Invitation to a reception of the Munich Climate Insurance Initiative

The City of Bonn, the University Institute for Environment and Human Security and the Munich Insurance Initiative (MCII) cordially invite you to a

Reception to celebrate the launch of an

MCII office in Bonn

Date: 11 June 2008
Time: 18:30 to 20:30
Location: Old City Hall, Bonn

MCII is opening an office in Bonn, hosted at the United Nations University Institute for Environment and Human Security (UNU-EHS), at the UN Campus in Bonn. The MCII office at UNU-EHS will help promote innovative and equitable risk management solutions especially for developing countries in a new era of climate risks.

The Munich Climate Insurance Initiative (MCII) was founded by representatives from insurance, NGOs, climate research and World Bank in response to the growing realization that insurance-related solutions can support adaptation to climate change as advocated in the Framework Convention and the Kyoto Protocol.

We look forward to celebrating the kick-off of the MCII secretariat in Bonn with you. Kindly respond by 5 June 2008 by fax or email, using the attached form.
