

of

Fiji/UNOPS/GHGMI side-event at SB58

Transparency for effective climate policies in agriculture

Date: Friday 9 June

Time: 14:45—16:00

Location: Room Bonn, WCCB

Agenda

14:45-14:50	Welcome by the moderator	Hannah Swee, Climate Change Expert, ICAT Secretariat (Moderator)
14:50-14:55	Introductory remarks	Henning Wuester, ICAT Director
15:00-15:10	Opening Address	Fiji: Mr. Kushaal Raj, Director, Office of the Prime Minister and UNFCCC focal point: “Data for evidence-based policymaking in rice production and livestock”
15:10-15:40	Panel discussion: Transparency for effective climate policies in agriculture	Moderated discussion on different aspects of transparency for mitigation and adaptation with a focus on the development of policies and using data for effective policy making. Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Kenya: Veronica Ndetu, Head of the Climate Change Unit, Ministry of Agriculture</li> <li>● Panama: Mabel Zuñiga, Climate Change Analyst, Ministry of Environment</li> <li>● Fiji: Ms. Namisha Nikita, Mitigation Officer, Climate Change Division, Office of the Prime Minister</li> </ul>
15:40-15:50	Methodologies for transparency	Presentations of available guidance for transparency for mitigation and adaptation in agriculture.

	in agriculture	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● FAO: Julia Wolf, Senior Natural Resources Officer: “FAO Guidance for the M&amp;E for adaptation in the agriculture”</li> <li>● GHGMI: Olga Lyandres, Project Manager: “The ICAT Agriculture methodology”</li> </ul>
15:50-15:55	Q&A and discussion
15:55-16:00	Closing remarks by the ICAT Director and wrap-up by the moderator	