

Climate Law and Governance Specialisation Course 2019

Symposium during UNFCCC COP25

8 December 2019, 9:30 AM – 2:00 PM

La Fundación para la Investigación sobre el Derecho y la Empresa (Fide), Serrano 26, 28001 Madrid, Spain

Seeking an international specialisation in climate law and governance? Through this half-day course during UNFCCC COP, earn a certification from the Centre for International Sustainable Development Law (CISDL), with leading speakers from UN-Environment, the EBRD, IUCN and other partners, taught by top experts from the Universities of Cambridge, McGill, MIT, Oslo and others.

This interactive, intensive capacity-building course will provide an opportunity for candidates to:

- Learn from the insights of renowned legal experts, deepening their understanding of the legal and institutional mechanisms available to implement their NDCs and the Paris Agreement
- Be introduced to crucial legal and governance challenges and opportunities, including how laws can strengthen mitigation, adaptation and resilience, and promote climate finance, compliance and transparency under the Paris Agreement, also activate loss and damage mechanisms and address human rights concerns.

Online tickets are available: register now through Eventbrite to secure your place!
