

Strengthening Legal Tools & Capacity for Climate Justice & Resilience

INVITATION

Thursday 17 November 2022 - 11:30—13:00
Akhenaten Room

Would you like to share ideas on how to implement the Paris Agreement pledges & the rule book through law & governance innovation?

Are you interested in networking with others on climate law & governance issues?

Are you working on climate justice & would like more ideas?

Strengthening Legal Tools & Capacity for Climate Justice & Resilience

Serious increases in legal capacity, backed by awareness & engagement, are needed to deliver on the Paris Agreement & the Glasgow Climate Pact.

How to scale up climate law & governance solutions exponentially, for net zero and vulnerable countries' adaptation & resilience, advancing key SDGs?

Co-chairs: Prof Marie-Claire Cordonier Segger (Senior Director, CISDL / Leverhulme Professor, University Cambridge), Mr. Kazi Hoque (Friendship), Ms. Claudia Zuniga Derecho Ambiente y Recursos Naturales (DAR), Mr. Felipe Pino Corporación Fiscalía del Medio Ambiente (FIMA), Ms. Omayem Lucia Odigie-Emmanuel Centre for Human Rights and Climate Change Research (C4HR&CCR).

Speakers: Leading climate law and governance decision-makers and advisors, general counsel, professionals, professors, experts and heads of institutions from Africa and Middle East, the Americas, Asia and Europe. Global Climate Law & Governance Day 2022 findings and awards will also be presented by youth.
