

UNFCCC Side Event by Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (in cooperation with Climate Action Network Southeast Asia and Coastal Development Partnership)

Outline: Just Transition - a multi-sectoral perspective to achieve ambitious climate policies

Time and Place:

Thursday, 11 Nov 2021

13:15—14:30 local time (GMT)

Multimedia Studio 1

Description:

Ambitious NDCs are best achieved if they focus on just transition principles developed jointly with civil society. In this event, we will explore how a just transition can promote the implementation of ambitious climate policies in key sectors in different regions in the Global South and North.

Agenda and Speakers:

13.15 - 13.20: Welcome and Intro - Yvonne Blos, Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung

13.20 - 13.30: Just Transition and NDCs in Ukraine, South Africa and Costa Rica - Victoria Brandemann, Wuppertal Institute

13.30 - 13.40: Just Transition in the energy sector in Southeast Asia - Nithi Nesadurai, Climate Action Network Southeast Asia

13.40 - 13.50: Just Transition in the mobility sector in the Middle East and North Africa – Haneen Shaheen, Climate Action Network Arab World

13.50 - 14.00: Just Transition and energy poverty in Bangladesh - Syed Jahangir Hasan Masum, Coastal Development Partnership

14.00-14.10: Just Transition, fiscal policies and structural change in the European Union - NN, European Economic and Social Committee

14.10 - 14.20: Q&A

Facilitation: Yvonne Blos, Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung