“Women’s Leadership on Climate Change Justice and the Grassroots Perspective”

Saturday 4 December 2010

20:15 to 21:45

Jaguar Room - Cancunmesse, Cancun – Mexico

Mary Robinson, President of Realizing Rights and the Mary Robinson Foundation - Climate Justice, will be joined by Constance Okollet, Chairperson of Osukuru United Women’s Network, Uganda and founding member of Climate Wise Women, and Francesca de Gasparis, Director of the Green Belt Movement - Europe, to discuss strategies for women’s participation in decision-making on climate change.

Panellists and respondents will explore issues including impacts, adaptation, lessons from the grassroots on REDD+, climate justice and local solutions. Moderator: Lorena Aguilar of the IUCN, Costa Rica.

In her recorded endorsement Green Belt Movement founder and Nobel Peace Laureate Wangari Maathai will reiterate the critical need for women’s leadership on climate change.

After the event a reception with canapés and hot drinks will be served.
