

Agenda for a Side Event at COP27

Title: How can SIDS harness capacity building for Article 6 cooperation?

Theme (max. 300 characters incl. spaces):

SIDS have been bypassed by carbon markets in the past. How can this be prevented under Article 6? The side event discusses approaches to capacity building in SIDS involving North-South and South-South collaboration, including simplification of methodologies.

Moderator: Axel Michaelowa

Speakers:

- Mr. Wills Agricole, Special Advisor, Ministry of Agriculture, Climate Change and Energy, Republic of Seychelles
- Ms Kaja Weldner, Perspectives Climate Research
- Ms Marie-May Jeremie, Seychelles Conservation and Climate Adaptation Trust (SeyCCAT)
- Ms Juliana Kessler, Perspectives Climate Research
- Mr Christian Fleischer, Perspectives Climate Research

Scheduled date and time: Tuesday, 15th Nov 2022 11:30—13:00

Location: Akhenaten (150)

Agenda:

Duration	Topic	Speaker(s)
10 min	How Article 6 could contribute to closing gaps in Seychelles' NDC	Mr. Wills Agricole
10 min	South-South capacity building – transferring Article 6 capacity from Africa to Caribbean SIDS	Mr. Christian Fleischer
10 min	Innovative financing for blue carbon activities in Seychelles through Article 6 and blended finance	Ms Marie-May Jeremie
10 min	Regional alliances as tools for Article 6 capacity building – the case of Africa	Ms Kaja Weldner
10 min	The International Initiative for Development of Article 6 Methodology Tools – facilitating access to Article 6.4	Ms Juliana Kessler
40 min	Discussion of entire panel, and with the audience	Moderated by Axel Michaelowa, Perspectives Climate Research

Gender pledge (requirement of submission form):

The event achieves a balanced gender distribution across speakers.